

Brahmatal Winter Trek

6 DAYS / 5 NIGHTS · EX-KATHGODAM · A FROZEN LAKE & A FRONT-ROW VIEW OF TRISHUL

Brahmatal is the quieter, dreamier winter trek — a frozen high-altitude lake wrapped in snow, ridgelines that open onto towering close-up views of Mt Trishul and Nanda Ghunti, and golden meadows under a blanket of white. It is one of the best snow treks for beginners who want the magic of winter without a punishing climb.

Day-by-day itinerary

Day 1 — Kathgodam → Lohajung ~2,350 m · ~210 km · 9–10 hr drive

Pickup from Kathgodam railhead and a long, scenic mountain drive via Almora and Gwaldam to the base village of Lohajung. Evening briefing and gear check. Overnight in a guesthouse.

Day 2 — Lohajung → Bekaltal ~3,000 m · ~6 km · 4–5 hr trek

A steady climb through dense oak and rhododendron forest to the camp near Bekaltal, a serene forest lake. First snow underfoot in season. Overnight in tents.

Day 3 — Bekaltal → Brahmatal ~3,200 m · ~7 km · 4–5 hr trek

Climb out of the treeline onto open ridges with widening views of Trishul and Nanda Ghunti, reaching the Brahmatal campsite near the frozen lake. Overnight in tents.

Day 4 — Brahmatal Top & Lake → back to Tilandi / Lohajung ~3,734 m · ~8 km · 6–7 hr

Summit day: climb the Brahmatal ridge for sweeping 360° Himalayan views, visit the legendary frozen lake, then begin the descent. The longest and most rewarding day. Overnight in tents / guesthouse.

Day 5 — Descend to Lohajung ~2,350 m · ~6 km · 3–4 hr descent

A relaxed forest descent back to Lohajung. Hot meal and a comfortable night in a guesthouse.

Day 6 — Lohajung → Kathgodam ~210 km · 9–10 hr drive

After breakfast, drive back to Kathgodam, arriving by evening.

Difficulty & safety — the honest bit

Brahmatal is graded Easy–Moderate and is one of the gentler winter treks, but it is still high-altitude and cold: expect deep snow, sub-zero nights, and a longer summit day near 3,700 m where mild AMS is possible. A few weeks of light cardio before you come makes it far more enjoyable. Our guides carry oxygen and a pulse oximeter, keep groups small, and will turn the group back if conditions demand it. Your safety comes before the summit.
